THE NEWS.

The news is very meagre again to-day. Our morning report consists only of a few paragraphs of foreign news, not of any very striking interest.

Election To-morrow.

To-morrow the legal voters of this city will be called upon to elect city officers for the ensuing year. We have before taken occasion to commend to them the excellent ticket that has been put in nomination for their support on that day. It ought to be made the business of the day by every Republican and Union man to see that this entire ticket is elected, and elected too by such a majority as shall be flattering to the candidates, and shall place the political position of our city beyond all question. We need not tell anybody that all the good wishes and good opinions in the world will not elect this ticket, yet we fear many will not vote as they thought just that. It will take votes to elect. That is the genius of our Government. If the people have any choice in their officers, they must make that choice known through the ballot-box. Five thousand good Republican voters, with the best possible opinion of the ticket, could not stay away from the polls and say, "be ye elected," and thus accomplish the object of their wishes.

These may be looked upon as truths too simple and obvious to need repeating, but it has always been our experience that there is a large class of voters who need to have such truths forced upon their attention at every election. They are very busy and are in danger of forgetting that it is election day, or they are indifferent to a portion of the ticket, and on that ground will let that part of it which they really desire to be successful be defeated; or, they have acted the part of the elector, and all the rest of their party is going to vote—that one vote doesn't count to anything, and therefore it is not necessary for them to trouble themselves about it, and so the election is lost by default.

If we have any voters that belong to any one of these classes, or all of them, or to any other class of stay-aways, we must treat them this year and for all time to come, to avail themselves of the inestimable right of free suffrage; to continue so to value that right that they cannot and will not forego its exercise on every occasion, when it is to be exercised. In short, follow Republican, Union men, let us to-morrow walk up to the polls promptly, deposit our regular ballot, and thus secure the election of as good a ticket as has ever been presented us for support.

Copperhead Complaint.—Then and now: Sargent's complaint and party faith under our observation, but we note in it some complaint about somebody or something. It really seems to be constitutional for the copperhead—this anti-administration "demagogue," to complain. If they have no real grievances, they will make one. If nobody has stood them, they will imagine somebody is about to strike. If Mr. Lincoln does anything, they find fault, and if he does not do anything, they find fault with him. They complain of condescension, of condescension, and, strangest of all, of "insincerity."

These poor fellows—with this constitutional ailment, have a great deal to say about the freedom of the press. They complain that their rights have been invaded—that the freedom of the press has been restrained. They have been privileged to blast out treason to their heart's content. Poor souls!

Having very shrewd memories, these copperhead exceptioners have forgotten all about the past. They do not remember how they once favored "mob violence" in the destruction of anti-slavery presses. They have forgotten how they murdered Elijah D. Loring, of Alton, Ill., in 1857. It has never occurred to them that they destroyed Mr. Loring's press, and killed him, because he interfered upon the enjoyment of his legitimate rights as a loyal citizen! No, no—they have no recollection of that scene. Nor have they the slightest idea that they were once in the habit of killing the anti-slavery journals, and destroying respectable journals, at the bidding of the slave power! They plead innocence, to be sure, but this is often the rags of a lie.

We would suggest to these sore heads, that while they complain of the news, it would be perhaps profitable to remember the then. The truth is, they have sworn to the world, and now they are reaping the whirlwind. They are being rewarded according to their deed.

Have You Made up Your Mind?

If so, we tell you have made it up to help, elect, to-morrow, the entire Republican and Union ticket. Don't let a man on it fail for want of a little energy on your part. There is not one on it you can afford to have defeated—not one that deserves to be "re-elected"—not one that has been nominated fairly and honorably—not one but what is fully qualified for the office for which he is named. What earthly reason is there why you should not come out and do your duty—your whole duty? There is none. Come, then, let us finish up what little yet remains of copperheadism. Let us perform the burial ceremony. Let us cover the carcass so deep that no political Gabriel can ever "dig" it into being again. Even so, let it pass.

The No Party Cry.

It has been often urged that we ought not to carry party politics into our little local elections—that we ought to select the most proper man, irrespective of party. There may at times have been some force or reason in such remarks. But we beg to enquire now, what office a copperhead is fitted for? We would not vote for one for constable, or for any office whatever, for we should be afraid that there would be some way in which he would discover that he could weaken the cause of the country and thwart the efforts the government is making for the re-establishment of law and order, throughout the whole country. They are not to be trusted. If there are honest ones among them, they are laboring under a delusion the prevalence of which would be utterly fatal to a Republican Government. Do we desire to place such men in office? Not at all.

Examine Your Ticket.

We never knew of an election yet but what there were more or less spurious tickets about the polls. It behooves every one to examine every name upon the ticket and see if all is right. A defeat of any of our candidates by such detestable frauds would be shameful in the extreme. Look to it.

Fair Weather Politicians.

If it should be stormy to-morrow, as it now looks as though it might, we hope none of our friends will stay away from the polls on that account. A fair weather politician is as bad as a fair weather Christian, and both ought to be excommunicated from all healthy organizations. Don't stay away because it rains.

The Town Elections.

The rush to our office to-day for tickets, shows that the contest in the towns to-morrow will be spirited, but with them it will be mostly on personal grounds. There are but few places where strictly party tickets will come in competition. Copperheadism is nowhere in the towns—to-morrow it will be nowhere in the city, "knowing" our friends come out and vote.

We print elsewhere, by request, the proceedings of the Democratic city convention. The ticket nominated is a good one—to be beaten. Mr. Smith declines the nomination for sealer, and we doubt not there are others upon the ticket that would prefer that course. It is no great privilege to run just for the fun of the thing. There are some however, who like it.

Should it be fair to-morrow, we hope our industrious mechanics, merchants and manufacturers will not feel too much driven with business to spare a few minutes to go to the polls and deposit their votes. It will never do to let the election go by default, and then spend the year in grumbling at the mal-administration of our city affairs by our copperhead opponents.

The Lady Teachers at Port Royal.

The prurient wretches who gave currency to the miserable slander upon the lady teachers at Port Royal made use of the name of the Rev. Liberty Billings for the purpose of giving substance to the falsehood. That gentleman now writes to the New York Tribune, as follows:

To the Editor of the New York Tribune: Sir: The atrocious calumny upon the lady teachers at Port Royal originated last fall with the Manchester, N. H., Union, a sheet too mendacious and vulgar to merit even contempt. The assertion of the N. H. Patriot, that I "confirmed" the lie, is maliciously false; as not a word nor hint has ever escaped my lips to that effect.

Nothing but the foulest political venom could have induced such a libel upon a noble class of women, engaged in a noble work. It is humiliating to feel obliged to deny the gross and disgusting falsehoods of an unscrupulous press. The mulattoes of the South, it is well known, are compelled to acknowledge paternity with the "chitany"—their misfortune more than their fault.

L. BILLINGS.

Brattleboro, Vt., March 23, 1864. Surely the creatures who resorted to this contemptible dodge in the hope of attaining their pro-slavery partisan ends must be the basest of all reptiles on God's foot-stool—worthy representatives of the Copperhead tribe.

Janesville, April 4, 1864.

The Whose Word.

Printers are not fellows. They allow their little types to cut up strange antics sometimes, to the great mortification of ambitious scribblers. Sad havoc is made occasionally with words that represent beautiful ideas. For instance, in the Daily Gazette for April 1st, is a sweet poem, entitled "The loved and lost." In the second stanza we read as follows:

"They are not lost; they are within the door
That shut out the loved and the lost."
It occurred to us, on reading these lines, that heaven would not be a very desirable place, if "every beautiful thing" were to be excluded. In this case, heaven would too nearly resemble a certain other alleged place, about which there has been much speculation. We think if the reader will substitute the word hurlful for "beautiful," in the passage above quoted, he will probably get the author's meaning. G.

SOMETHING GOOD.—Mr. J. M. Hager of New York who has been giving his Allegory and Tableau entitled the "Great Rebellion" in the principal cities both East and West and recently in Chicago and Milwaukee with immense success, is in town and proposes to produce it at Lappin's Hall soon, with some 200 young people of our city. Mr. Hager is a gentleman who stands high in the musical world and does everything thoroughly and upon a grand scale, and his daughter who accompanies him, the press speak of as one of the finest pianists in the country. This will doubtless prove the great musical event of the season and something that no one can afford to miss seeing.

A full rehearsal will be held at Lappin's Hall to-morrow at 10 o'clock A. M.

The Declaration of Mr. Smith.

MEANS, EDITORS.—Street rumor informs me that I have this day been put in nomination by the democratic convention for, in my opinion, the most important office on the city ticket. This nomination, for several reasons, I must most respectfully decline. First, I cannot consistently with my well known views accept a nomination from any political party until the rebellion is suppressed. Second, I believe that the gentleman, Capt. Macdonald, already before the people for the same office, will discharge the duties thereof, much better than I could, if I had the time to devote to it. Third, I cannot in justice to myself and others, give to it the necessary time and attention.

The Bounty Question.

MEANS, EDITORS.—On returning to the city this morning I learned, for the first time from the somewhat exultant communication of an "anti-bounty" man that the local bounty had been voted down by a large majority. In that decision I acquiesce, though I think it was wrong—and a poor return for our exemption from the draft. But I see one thing in your paper which I think demands notice at the hands of those who have been active in favor of this bounty, and that is that they or at least their backers, have been actuated by a spirit of speculation, or that they have purchased at a discount the claims of the soldiers upon this bounty. I think the men that made these charges should publish them over their own signatures. I guarantee for myself, and I think I can for all those ultimately associated with me in this matter, that if any individual will make that charge with reference to me, or to them, over his own signature, the matter will be put in a shape to fully enlighten the public. Individuals who are meant ought to be named. And if no individual can be named, and no facts stated—then the opposition ought to admit that the whole thing was a contemptible lie. I have acted in this matter, as I thought to be right, regardless of the frowns of the rich or the threats of the poor. I shall not be drawn from that course by any such epithets as "pottifogger," "agrarian" or "demagogue."

April 2, 1864. CHAS. C. WILLIAMS.

WE HAVE heard of no word nomination by the Copperheads except in the Fourth, though they may have made them. Their great fight is to be on the general city ticket. If they could succeed in electing any portion of that, or even in reducing the Republican majority of last spring, they would make a great blow about it, and the Madison Patriot and Milwaukee News would not get over rejoicing at it under six months. Don't let us give these intensely disloyal papers any chance to crow.

WE UNDERSTAND Jared M. Haselton is nominated in the 4th Ward for Alderman, by the Copperheads. Jared will be active and unscrupulous, and Mr. McDougal's friends must be on the look out, for him. They must work and get out their full vote or we fear they will be beaten. The Fourth is not apt to give a very heavy Republican vote, but there are some excellent workers there, who will give a good account of themselves.

MAXIMILIAN ENBARKED FOR MEXICO

FROM EUROPE.

New York, April 4.—The steamer City of London left Liverpool and Queenstown on the 21st of March, and arrived here at 7 a. m.

The New York correspondent of the London Star says the American Government will surrender the back Stern, seized by the Port of London.

The Times' editorial on American affairs, seen on a voyage on either side Great Britain, says the only thing certain is, there will be no intervention; Americans will work out the result by themselves.

Garibaldi is expected to land at Southampton in about a week.

A London morning paper says that unless Napoleon and Maximilian resign the South, the cause of a Mexican empire will be a futile expenditure of strength by France, and end in humiliation to all concerned.

No additional fighting in Jutland. Semi-official Copenhagen papers say that Denmark has not decided to the assistance, as she cannot entertain the surrender of Duppel, nor consent to the present position of affairs being the basis for peace negotiations.

The United States ship St. Louis reached Santa Cruz on the 6th.

Maximilian enbarked for Mexico on the 14th.

FROM WASHINGTON.

Washington, April 3.—John Jay, D. Van Buren, G. C. Ward, E. C. Courden and G. W. Blunt have arrived here as a committee of the Union League Club of New York, to urge the passage by the Senate of the House bill providing for the voluntary enlistment of any person resident of the Union into the States into the ranks of the Union Army.

The H. A. Washington dispatch says: Gen. Grant has issued an order directing that any command or address by an officer or a soldier to his superior, unless forwarded through the regular official channel, will be disregarded, and the writer tried by court-martial, and if found guilty shall be dismissed from the service, or otherwise severely punished.

Yesterday a newly-invented torpedo prematurely exploded at the navy yard, seriously injuring the inventor and an officer who was examining it.

Admiral Dahlgren has given up the hope of recovering the body of his son, and will on Monday leave for Charleston, to resume the command of the South Atlantic squadron.

New York, April 3.—The Times Havana correspondent has Mexican news to the effect that Gen. Juarez has declared against Juarez.

Gen. Mejia was marching against the Mexican General Doblado. Doblado was also marching to fight Mejia. Other accounts say Doblado was going to the United States.

An American General is said to have gone to have an interview with Juarez. General Basine would shortly leave the city of Mexico for Puebla, to direct the operations of an expedition against the south of Mexico, and the report of the capture of Guadalupe by Urago, and the shooting of Miramon, appears to be unbounded.

Urago is reported to have withdrawn, and to be marching to the south of Morelia. Ortega is reported to have routed by the French General Castagna and disbanded his troops.

The French are reported to have abandoned Tabasco and Minutilla after some evening fighting.

The French fleet is blockading the coast strictly from Vera Cruz.

PHILADELPHIA, April 3.—An unfortunate accident occurred at a concert last night. An Irish woman was shot dead in a private box by her lover who fired three bullets through her.

The house was closed on account of the occurrence.

AFTERNOON DISPATCHES.

FROM IDAHO.

San Francisco, March 30, 1864.—The steamer Golden Age arrived last night from Panama.

Oregon dispatches of to-day contain news from Idaho, relating principally to the great exertions made there for the suppression of crime. The Grand Jury of Boise county had returned twelve indictments for murders, sixteen for assault with intent to kill, and one for manslaughter. A vigilance committee, numbering a thousand men, was making a clean sweep of the villains infesting Beaver Head county. They hung eleven men at Virginia, five at Big Hole, one at Deer Lodge, and seven at Brier Hat.

The Indians on the Snake River were committing ravages. They were armed with rifles and shot-guns.

The rush of emigration from Oregon and California to Idaho is immense.

The schooner Cornelia sailed on the 23rd for Hong Kong, with $350,000 in treasure. The late rains have been of incalculable benefit to agricultural and mining interests.

FROM LOUISVILLE.

Louisville, March 3.—Military authorities here have no apprehension of any extensive raid into Kentucky for the present.

The Journal's Huntsville special says a party of guerrillas on Thursday night robbed several houses eighteen miles from that place, and stole several horses.

Gen. McPherson and Logan drove them to Tennessee River on Friday, but could not get on the opposite bank.

The Knoxville Times mentions the capture on Thursday of the notorious guerrilla, Sam. Moore, who has been committing depredations in the vicinity of Paducah, Athens, and Decatur, for months past.

The passenger train from Nashville is several hours behind time, detained in consequence of a freight train running off the track at Mumfordsville this morning.

FROM WASHINGTON.

A NEW LOTTERY.—The Paris Pays credits M. Emile de Girardin with a new solution of the European difficulty. He would put the names of all the sovereigns of Europe into a hat, and draw by lot five names, which shall constitute a European jury, thus regulating the destinies of Europe by chance. M. de Girardin is so delighted with this idea that, in his opinion, all the world would attentively regard his hat. The Pays says that he has forgotten one point, which is that, out of the forty-five emperors, kings and princes who govern Europe, at least thirty are Germans, so that, if his system were adopted, there would be thirty chances out of forty-five that Europe would be subjected to the decisions of Germany. From such a contingency they beg to be relieved.

The Blue Birds.

We saw one of our little "blue jacks" flitting through the air, yesterday morning, with his peculiar whistling notes, and his throat with a feeling of gratitude and welcome. After the bird had the thrush and the robin. Across the scarred and browned fields the juncos of the spring are fluttering and singing every day, perching for a brief rest on the old rail-fences and hollow apple trees, and filling the air with the melody which their little hearts seem not large enough to hold. In listening, one responds to the factor of their warbling song with a like flutter of his own sensibilities. The boy creeps in under the tree on whose dried prong our young singer sits, and would give worlds to close his greedy hands about that sky-blue coat of his. And so older children turn about when we catch the gust of his music, the tan-tan-ra-ra of the bird-hugle which summons troops of the whole feathered tribe to the fields again, to the scene where our spring friends come from, and whither they go, and to send forth the warmest expressions of our heart's silent gratitude. The old pictures of our happiest springs spread out at once before us, evoked by the little cascade of melody. We see the brooks swimming down through greenest meadows, the yellow cowslips quivering in the pulse of their current, the dandelions starting the plains of grass, and apple-buds growing thickly about the earth, and sky, sun, air, water and sounds are filled with the finest delights and the most spiritual suggestions. Coming just when it does, the bluebird moves our hearts more tenderly than all the rest of his tribe; for he is the airy prophet we have all been waiting for through the wintry snows, and for whom we always have ready a loving welcome.

BADGER!

1862! 1863! 1864!

GOOD! BETTER! BEST!

THE

BADGER DRILL!

HERETOFORE KNOWN AS

THE JESSUP DRILL!

AS MADE BY

R. J. RICHARDSON,

is now vastly improved, and will hereafter be called the BADGER. The new process of all the good and the old drill, and many valuable improvements.

The feeding principle of the new drill is the same as the old, but the working arrangement is quite different, and very much improved.

The workman is also much better than the old drill. We will not claim that the Badger is better made than other drills, but will say that it is made by experienced workmen, under my own supervision, and an unwilling that it should be compared with the best drill made.

It is made of the best of summer seasoned white oak, from the forests of Indiana. The poles and rolls are dried out from Jefferson County. The hubs and other castings are from the reliable Rock River Iron Works of Janesville & Co. The various sizes of wrought iron are from numerous rolling mills of Pittsburgh.

From the celebrated Sheffield works of Singer, Nimick

& Co. The rollers are from the Ohio State Prison, located at Columbus, Ohio. The spikes are of dry white oak, from Northern Wisconsin. The chains are from

Wm. Frederick, Germany. No pains have been spared to obtain the best material—the workman will show for itself.

To those who know the old drill it is only necessary to say that the Badger is like it only better. To those who are not acquainted with the old drill, we would say that the Badger drill is more accurate in its feeding than any other drill introduced.

It is a lighter draft and easier for the team than any drill yet introduced into this market.

That it will distribute any kind of grain grown in this region. That it will Plant Corn in Rows or in Hills!

Any distance apart, from three to six feet.

The Badger is warranted to perform, in a good and workmanlike manner, all that is required of any drill. If, on trial, it does not perform, it can be returned to the manufacturer, and all damages will be paid to the purchaser.

In consequence of the large advance in cost of all kinds of material, the Badger must be sold at advanced prices over last year.

Prices of the Badger for 1864:

9 Tooth Drill, $75 10 Tooth Drill, $85

10 Tooth Drill, $95 12 Tooth Drill, $105

Fire drill made for Grass Seed. Four horse
